

Champion Iron Mines Sells Minority Interest in Attikamagen

TORONTO, ONTARIO–(Marketwired – Dec. 4, 2013) – CHAMPION IRON MINES LIMITED (TSX:CHM) (FRANKFURT:P02) (“Champion”, or the “Company”) announces that it has completed in escrow the previously announced disposition of its remaining interest in the Attikamagen Lake Project to Labec Century Iron Ore Inc. (“Labec Century”), a subsidiary of Century Iron Mines Corporation (“Century”). Labec Century will, upon completion of required title registrations, own 100% of the Attikamagen Lake Project and the joint venture between Labec Century and Champion for the Attikamagen Lake Project will at that time be terminated. Registration of the title transfer documents in the applicable registries of the Province of Québec and Newfoundland and Labrador is expected to take approximately three weeks.

As consideration for Champion’s interest in the Attikamagen Lake Project, Century has issued to Champion a total of 2,000,000 common shares and 1,000,000 share purchase warrants. Each share purchase warrant entitles Champion to purchase one additional common share for a five-year term at exercise prices ranging from $0.75 per share, initially, escalating to $2.50 per share in the final year. In addition, Champion will receive a royalty based on sales of iron ore from the Attikamagen Lake Project pursuant to a royalty agreement entered into between Century, Labec Century and Champion concurrent with closing. The Century shares and share purchase warrants issued to Champion will be released from escrow upon completion of title transfer registrations, at which time the royalty agreement will also become effective. The Century shares issued to Champion are subject to a two year lock-up, followed by a right of first refusal in favour of Century. In connection with the transaction Champion has agreed to pay a 7% finder’s fee to an arm’s length third party, consisting of 140,000 of the consideration Century common shares and 70,000 of the consideration Century share purchase warrants.

ABOUT CHAMPION IRON LIMITED
